JCMA

Jewish Christian Muslim Association of Australia Incorporated ~ Established 2003.

JCMA aims...

to enable people of the Abrahamic faiths to build relationships and understanding through experience, and to provide opportunities and programs for people of the Abrahamic faiths to explore interfaith dialogue within Australia's multicultural community. The programs are complemented by deepened understanding of faith gained through engagement and learning from each other.

The JCMA Women's Conference offers...

the opportunity for women's experience and perspective in the conversation of faith and hope towards the future of humanity, and the opportunity to explore ways in which women make a difference.

The JCMA Women's Conference is for the participation of women who are either Jewish, Christian or Muslim.

Participants may include lay people and clergy who are active in congregational life and who are interested in interfaith dialogue and relationships.

The JCMA Women's Conference invites Jewish, Christian and Muslim women who support the aims and purpose of the Conference to register their interest and to participate in this inaugural event.

Attendance at the Conference is limited to around 45 places. It is intended that participants remain in residence for the full Conference which starts 2pm Sunday 28th Feb. and concludes 3pm Tuesday March 2nd, 2010
